

All The Time Forever In Your Love

(johnny8joker)

All the time forever in your love
Will I still feel this blood flowing in your heart?
In the river behind your shoulders
You've pushed until the edge not to fall

Ooh ooh Ooh ooh Ooh ooh
All the time forever in your love

You felt the wind'd have brought you along... faraway
And now you're still poised for a new battle
You sing of happiness as you were in heaven
You shout for the life you still can feel

Ooh ooh Ooh ooh Ooh ooh
All the time forever in your love

You've found the rock inside that makes you feel safe
While outside snow isn't melted yet
You feel the need to ride your life
And now you are still poised always with your love

Love Love Love Love Love
All the promises
All the time
All the time forever in your love
